

A Venn diagram consisting of two concentric circles. The larger, outer circle is labeled 'NP' at its top. The smaller, inner circle is labeled 'P' at its bottom. The inner circle is entirely contained within the outer circle. The label $\cdot \mathcal{A}$ is located in the region between the two circles, towards the top-left.

NP

$\cdot \mathcal{A}$

$\cdot \Pi$

P